Abstract

InvestIQ is an AI-powered research platform focused on Indian stock markets (NSE/BSE), with additional coverage of crypto, forex, IPOs, and mutual funds. It combines fundamentals, technicals, and sentiment analysis synthesized into a decisive BUY/HOLD/SELL view for stocks. The platform offers real-time Yahoo Finance data with CPR, Camarilla, and pivotconfluence F&O (Futures & Options) setups, live price tracking, risk scoring, and institutionalgrade IPO notes, live NAV graphs, and Telegram alerts on every event for mutual funds. It also surfaces trending and top-rated stocks based on live market movement. Notably, the platform explicitly states it is NOT a SEBI-registered portal and positions itself as an educational research platform only, built for education & research purposes.
